

SEA

Some leviathan,
Haply flum'ring on the Norway foam,
The pilot of some small night-founder'd skiff
Deeming some island, oft as seamen tell,
With fixed anchor in his scaly rind,
Moors by his side under the lee, while night
Invelts the sea.
Small fragments of shells, broken by storms on some shores,
are used for manuring of sea land.
They put to sea with a fleet of three hundred sail.
Sea racing dolphins are train'd for our motion.
Moony tides swelling to roll us ashore. Dryden's Allion.
But like a rock unmov'd, a rock that braves
The raging tempest, and the rising waves,
Propp'd on himself he stands; his solid side
Wash off the sea weeds, and the founding tides.
The sea could not be much narrower than it is, without a great loss to the world.
So when the first bold vessel dar'd the sea,
High on the stern the Thracian rais'd his strain,
While Argo saw her kindred trees
Descend from Pelion to the main. Pope.

To sorrow abandon'd, but worse felt within,
And in a troubled sea of passion tost. Milton.

gave 'em the slip: our friend the alderman was half sea over ing examples.

a cat: his body long, and all over hairy: his forefeet, with
